There was no one present to represent the request for review.

3. Guests: There were no guests present.

4. Review of and Decision on Citation Review Request:

It was noted, for the record, that the following information is included in all correspondence generated by this Board:

ORDINANCE REGARDING HEARING PROCEDURES FOR CITATIONS AND OTHER FINES

If the alleged violator fails to appear, the hearing officers may enter an assessment by default against him upon finding of proper notice and liability under the applicable ordinance, including a failure to appear penalty of not more than the original citation amount.

- a. Citation #026-0702 – James Barabe, 40 Middlesex Avenue, Chester – Blocking/Obstructing Crosswalk, 33 Main Street, Chester.

Since no one was present to represent the request for review of this Citation,

On motion by Paul Radicchi, seconded by Kathy Merola, Citation #026-0702 for Blocking/Obstructing Crosswalk, 33 Main Street, Chester remains valid, with the fine of $50 due and payable, with an additional $50 penalty for failure to appear for the requested hearing, as provided in the enacting Ordinance. The motion passed unanimously.
