

Chester Park and Recreation Commission Park Fee Schedule

Chester residents are free with photo identification. Six people may enter, including a household member, per household, free of charge. Additional guests are $3 per person. People who live in a group setting in Chester are residents.

Chester taxpayers, that are not residents, are to show photo identification and proof of taxpayer status. The parks are not for use by their employees or customers unless they purchase an annual pass. Six people may enter, including the tax payer, per tax payer, free of charge. Additional guests are $3 per person.

A care-giver, accompanying a resident, is free with their identification, and a signed letter and proof of residency or taxpayer status, from the resident or taxpayer guardian. Additional guests are $3 per person.

Chester non-profit groups, cooperatively owned taxpaying entities, or taxpaying businesses, may purchase a park pass for $65 that can be transferred among members of that group or others. Individual residents and taxpayers may also purchase a park pass for $65 that can be transferred to their family or friends who are not residents. The pass will be for up to 6 people. Additional guests are $3 per person.

Non-residents may purchase an annual park pass for $65. The pass will be for up to 6 people who reside in the household or are guests, accompanied by a member of the household. Identification and the pass are required for entrance. Additional guests are $3 per person. Non-residents may purchase additional passes that are transferable.

The annual pass covers a period through June 17, 2017. Daily passes for non-residents are not sold.

Please display a pass or public access sticker in the front windshield of your car at unstaffed parks or during unstaffed hours.

Groups = any group of 10, to a maximum of 60, including parties, child care, family gatherings, etc.
