School starting April 20th and running for four weeks. The cost is $35.00. All agreed that it was fine to move forward with this initiative, pending contact with her references and employer.

Chairman's Report:

The Commission discussed Facebook guidelines. Facebook guidelines were initially discussed at a meeting attended by John Williams, the Director, and First Selectwoman Lauren Gister. It was recommended that only two committee members be administrators for the Chester Parks and Recreation Facebook page. Members recommended Mr. Abramson (event related) and Ms. Gianetti (all other) be the administrators. Mr. Saunders will be an editor. The primary objective of the Chester Parks and Recreation Facebook page is to promote Chester Parks Recreation happenings. We will attempt to keep the scope of the Facebook page on this objective.

UPDATE = Board of Selectmen/Board of Finance Special Meeting:

Some Recreation Commission Members attended the Wednesday, March 8th joint Board of Selectmen and Board of Finance meeting. It appeared that the Chester Park and Recreation Commission budget was well received by the board members present. It was also made known, and appreciated by the boards, that Chester Parks and Recreation will continue to seek scholarship donations to help children in need afford attending our camps.

Next Meeting:

Our next meeting will be Wednesday, April 26th at 7:00 PM.

Adjournment:

Mr. Abramson moved to adjourn the meeting and Mr. Williams seconded the motion. The meeting was adjourned at 8:34 PM.

Respectfully Submitted,
Dr. Deron G. Grabel, Chester Parks & Recreation Commission Member
