What is a Hotspot?

The Hotspot is an easy-to-use device that allows you to connect to your tablet, laptop, or other mobile device to the Internet wherever you are – at home, a road trip, an outing of some sort, etc.

What can you do with a Hotspot?

Internet service at home. The library's hotspot can provide Internet access at home to fulfill your household's needs like research for school projects and papers, job searching and online applications, live streaming, and much more!

Take it on a road trip. Connecting your mobile device to a hotspot during a long car ride enables you to stream movies, music, or other online content without the risk of incurring data charges.

Take it on vacation. Do you not have internet access where you are staying (or no free Internet)? The hotspot will allow you to connect to the Internet and retain access to your favorite online sites and entertainment.

Easy to use. Make sure the Hotspot is fully charged. Press and hold the power button in front of the device until you see the Welcome appear. The device will activate automatically. Go to your WiFi settings and click on Franklin T9 1508 password d72810c4 which will connect you to the internet. You can also get this information by clicking the power key to go through the menu. To turn off, hold the power key until Goodbye is displayed.
